

November 2014

A Happy Hello! With November in full swing it's finally time to break out the hot chocolate, cute winter boots, and soft fuzzy sweaters! It's a great time of year to get inspired and start making plans for the wedding of your dreams. Find what you're looking for on VW. Here's what's new:

Emerging Event Venues

Southern California is a gorgeous place to live and party! Perhaps that's why so many new event locations are popping up all over the place. Recently, we've been contacted by several wedding venues in Fillmore and Santa Paula, two cities full of rustic California charm located in the beautiful Heritage Valley. We are currently constructing pages for such stunning outdoor wedding locations as Limoneira Ranch, and we hope to have them ready for y'all soon!

Wedding Inspiration

No matter what stage of planning you're in, it's always fun to pick up new ideas and inspiration for your wedding day. Our VW Facebook page is devoted to bringing you just that! We post daily pictures of cute wedding accessories and fashion (and where to buy them), hairstyles, and DIY projects to make your wedding unique, stylish and pretty. We share links to helpful articles like "Unplugged Weddings," inform brides of local wedding shows and expos, and share tips for brides on a budget. Check it out!

Entertain Me

In case you've missed it, two of our recent blog articles have shared great ideas for entertaining your guests while sharing with everyone important/ humorous/ informative details on how you became a couple. Sweet! Our favorite is a Couple's Love Story Video. You can see an example of one HERE. When this previewed at their wedding, all the guests commented on how much they enjoyed this entertaining insight into their lives. Another idea is to show a Couple's Photomontage of them growing up and growing together. You can see samples of this HERE. Love it!
