

May 2016

Smiles from VW! If the stunning springtime blooms and sizzling sun aren't enough to get you twitter-pated this season, then hang in there—VW has got you covered! This newsletter should have a little something for everyone, including a luxurious featured venue, fun DIY projects that are simple and affordable, and a playful date idea for you and your special someone! Check it out!

Santa Ynez Inn: Luxurious & charming wine country getaway

Have you always dreamed of a destination wedding without the hassle of air travel and anxiety? A wedding at the Santa Inez Inn has all the pluses of a vacation getaway with amazing amenities and event planning resources to boot! Book the Inn for the weekend and take advantage of the company of your closest friends as you prepare for your nuptials. Santa Ynez is infamous wine country so after a leisurely day wine tasting, take the gals in for some spa treatments available onsite before settling in to enjoy the comfort and hospitality of one of their luxury suites. You'll feel pampered and rested for your wedding day, with all the assurances that your event will be handled by the onsite professional Event Coordinator and Catering Event Manager. The large grassy lawn and gardens at Santa Ynez Inn are perfect for an intimate outdoor ceremony with room for up to 150 guests for a seated reception. Several indoor spaces like the Library or Coach House are also available for smaller gatherings. Wine, sun, comfort, tranquility . . . what more could you hope for? Experience the wedding of your dreams at the Santa Ynez Inn! Please call (805) 688-5588, email info@santaynezin.com, or visit their website for more information.

Fun & Fabulous

We recently attended a bridal fair (fun!) and created two charming pieces for a sweetheart gift box (photo above) for under $20! Visit our blog article: DIY Sweetheart Table Décor to find out how we did it.

Ready for a fabulous date idea? Whether you are just getting to know your special someone or you've been married a few years, take a trip down memory lane together to learn more about your sweetheart's past. Find out how you can create a simple and sweet date for you and your loved one in our blog article: Date Idea Alert! A Trip Down Memory Lane. Let us know how your date goes in the comments below. XO VW!

Thank you for participating in the VW Community! Keep in touch! All our love, VW